

Week 1

*“Give someone a fish and they will eat for a day.
Teach them how to fish and you will feed them for a lifetime.”*

Taksa

“Knowledge of the 4 Directions”
Knowledge of the elements

You can see everything about a person from their Taksa grid.

That’s good in them, what’s bad in them, what color car they should have for safety or confident driving.

Even how to pick the right pet for you to support your life.

Every number in your life, from the checkout counter you choose to your phone number and bank accounts number all have an influence on your interaction with them.

Your license plate shows how you will drive and what will go wrong with your car first.

Your age will reveal your behavior, problems and focus for each year, your home’s address number affects everyone living in that house and how they will interact with each other.

This is because...

Every number (and color) is a symbol of the natural elements.

The Elements of 0-9

Number 1

Element: Flame, large, visible fire.

Color: Red

Day of week: Sunday

Personality: King

- Attention seeking
- Wants to be important
- Need others
- Nothing is every enough
- Always focused on what they don't have.

When you have a flame it goes very big and then goes down. Whenever you have fire it's impossible that it lasts long. It's only a period of time. Everything with 1 is a period of time.

Why a king? Care how others look at you or think about you. Don't want others to look at you like a bad person. It doesn't matter where you are, the fire will burn everyone. People born Sunday feel that others don't appreciate them.

Sundays feel that they do a lot for other people but other people don't feel that way at all. People feel that they can't be relaxed around a Sunday.

Sunday symbols: If need fire in your house, wallet or anything else, can use red color or status symbols. Something to show you have been accepted by society. ie recognition or award or certificate.

Quick Note: Even if you have 10 Sunday people in front of you, each one of them will be different. Their age, career, culture, gender, and time of birth all play a distinctive part in their final manifest personality. So, if you feel that the information is incorrect, be patient, all will be explained.

This is the basics, there are more details and factors to keep in mind which we will get to later.

Number 2

Element: Soil, dirt, earth with moisture

Color: Yellow, White, Cream

Day of week: Monday

Personality: Housewife

- Creative
- Emotional
- Changing
- Giving & Welcoming
- Biased

Earth is the beginning of life. Every tree or animal can live here. People born on Monday have personality like a mother. They understand emotion but they also have too much in them. Their emotion goes up and down. They can be in a good mood but then suddenly if you say something they can become upset.

They see in different way. They change all the time. Every time you put something in earth you blend in. If you're friends with Monday you will become similar to them.

If your friend is #2 when you have a problem you will go talk to them. Like a mother. If you have problems you want them but otherwise you don't want to be around them all the time.

Symbols that represent #2: Everything to do with a women. If you want to use this number you can use for example things women love such as scrunchy, hair tie, earring, rings etc.

Number 3

Element: Concentrated Storm ie Hurricane or Tornado

Color: Pink & Purple

Day of week: Tuesday

Personality: Soldier

- Focused
- Always moving
- Straight to the point
- Specialist

The wind that no one on earth can stop or destroy.

People born on this day are very focused - with one condition. They have to be born with parents that don't spoil them. Because if they are spoiled as children they will become very cheeky and lazy adults. If not spoiled they will become experts in some areas. But when want to know something they want to know it deeply.

3 Takes time to start in the beginning. But once they pick up speed and become structured they are no longer stoppable. It keeps growing and growing which is symbolic of them gaining more and more knowledge about what they are specialists in.

A hurricane or tornado brings everything in. They learn everything quickly and deal with everything systematically.

But at the center of a storm (the eye), there is nothing. So, most people born this day act like they do care about everyone and everything on the outside. But in truth they don't give a shit about anyone. They don't understand other people's feelings. Only understand systematic things.

Symbols that represent #3: Everything related to sports. Weapons (fake or real) plus everything about government.

Number 4

Element: The Ocean

Color: Green

Day of week: Wednesday

Personality: Ambassador

- Don't care how others see them
- Seem selfish but have a good heart
- Always giving but doesn't want to look good

People can see the ocean as beautiful, scary or dangerous. But 4 doesn't care. They are just who they are. Don't want others to see them as too attractive because otherwise people will go to them and they will have a lot of problems from other people.

Wednesdays don't like to speak but once they speak they are straight forward. They don't think how another will feel. They don't care. They say whatever comes to mind. But even though they act like that they have a warm heart. They love to help other people and want to do it quietly. Don't want others to know they are good people.

Wednesdays have a lot of friends. If you have Wednesday friend is a friend forever. They have their friends trust. They are the first people to help their friends in times of problems.

Symbols for #4: Anything in green color such as a tree or plant.

Number 5

Element: Rock/Dry Earth

Color: Orange

Day of week: Thursday

Personality: Mentor

- Stubborn
- Traditional
- Reason
- High tolerance threshold

Very few can live in this area. It's very dry. You can use it to build but not to live. People born this day (Thursday) love to teach and love to learn. But the bad thing is they are biased. If they love you, you're perfect. They may feel that they can yell at you but no one else can. They often don't see the bad side of the people they love.

When they love you everything is so good they don't care.

But they are very stubborn. If you want to change them it takes a lot of time and effort. If you want them to trust you it will be very difficult in the beginning but once they do, they "become your slave". They will follow you with everything you say and will trust you with everything.

Things that symbolize #5. Everything about education. Pens, books, etc.

Number 6

Element: River, lake or pond

Color: Blue

Day of week: Friday

Personality: Mentor

- Lazy
- Cunning
- Easy to trust

They can be very kind. This kind of water everyone loves. Every kind of animal or tree will love this kind of water. But at the same time you have to go and see them. They won't go to you. Friday only do whatever they want or that pleases them. They're so smart and love comfort. So they will make sure they will have money and comfort, even if it means to take advantage from other people.

The good thing about them is that they instinctively know how to use people. But they are too lazy so will find a way to make their work done even if they don't have to do it themselves.

Symbols of Friday (6): Everything that makes you comfy.

Number 7

Element: Heat

Color: Black/Grey/Brown

Day of week: Saturday

Personality: Farmer

- Slow but thorough
- In own world
- Pressure
- Biased
- Hard to Relate to others
- Bit by bit

This fire is the most powerful of all the elements. It's very difficult to get rid of. Like in our body. We can heat up in our body when we are sick and it can affect a lot of things in our body. That's number 7.

They're simple but too simple. It annoys others. If there is something to be done in a structure, they are so perfect. But it takes time for them to learn.

They are so slow. They cannot work or learn fast.

Saturdays have a specific frame. When they do something it has many conditions on how and when it happens. They structure their actions in a very different way than others. They think differently than "normal" people.

Normally in day to day life they are simple and easy going but in the end they have many conditions.

Symbols for 7: Everything about nature or about the past. Such as an antique or a tomb.

Number 8

Element: Breeze

Color: Pearl, shimmer, uncertain which color it actually is.

Day of week: N/A

Personality: Politician

- Unpredictable
- Opposite to expectation
- Uncontrollable
- Mischievous

If you have number 8 in your telephone number it means when you talk it twists to something else. Number 8 twists everything, just like the shape of the number 8.

Number 9

Element: N/A

Color: Radiance / aura

Day of week: N/A

Personality: Monk

- Helps you without your knowledge
- Knowledge
- Complicated
- Light
- Always finds a way
- Brings out the good in something

If number 9 goes with any number it helps that other number. But when there is a number that is not good for you it means that it will strengthen the bad thing also.

Number 0

Element: N/A

Color: No color/ Blinding or extreme light

Day of week: N/A

Personality: Brat

- Troublemaker
- Brings out the worst
- Creates Extremes
- Not balanced

0 is like a brat or a kid that you can't control. Every time they touch something they destroy it. Uncomfortable. If you have a 0 in front of any number (01) it destroys the nature or element of that number. But if it's at the back (10) it makes that first number extreme to the point of causing problems.

Natural Enemies and Friends

All elements have natural enemies – called Kusatru, and natural friends, called Kumid.

Kusatru – Enemies

1-3

Normally when you have fire you can use air to make the fire bigger for it to consume the air. But when you have too much fire the air will be completely consumed and the fire will die too. The point is..

If unbalanced, fire or air destroy each other.

If you have a license plate with 13 in the number it means when something is wrong with the car it needs a big repair. 13 means whatever the problem is, it will be because something is destroyed and needs to be completely replaced.

4-8

When you have ocean with wind, it creates large disturbances like tsunamis, storms, and hurricanes. You can use these numbers in a good way but they destroy things so easily, especially with money. Water means assets, means value. 4 affects your money. If you have a phone number with 4 and 8 it means when you are talking with a client and you are so sure you will have money, something will happen which will stop it from happening.

Same with your license plate. If 48 is in your license plate it means that even when you are so sure you won't get lost, you will.

It always shows when there is something you are truly sure you will get, you won't get it.

6-7

Water like a river, the water won't come to you, you have to go to it. When you have 67 in your phone or otherwise, everything you will have to do twice, and whatever you want will take time to happen.

2-5

2 and 5 is like family. You love your family but if you spend too much time with them you become frustrated. They are both earth elements. They are both stable but because they are who they are too much. They don't feel like they want to change. They want to be who they are.

If you have 2 and 5 in your license plate, you will feel like you don't want to follow anyone. You'll always be moody and want to yell and scream.

If you have 2 -5 in anything in your life, you'll feel like you don't know how exactly to talk to others you will feel stuck.

Kumid – Friends

Some elements naturally support each other. These are called kumid pairs.

1+5

When a fire begins to be big, and when it's gone it becomes earth (ash). They help each other to become stronger. When fire burns, it leaves dry earth behind. But when fire has more fuel, like coal or wood (both dry earth), it becomes larger too.

They help each other but at the same time you will expect too much from each other as well but it depends on the actual day people are born as how this pair will affect you.

But whenever these two numbers are together, they will expand or make something larger or more abundant. Whatever that thing is, good or bad.

2+4

Humans are influenced by money the most. 4 and 6 are assets. When 2 and 4 are together it means that you will have to help others with money or with something else that is seen as valuable. Because it's number 2, it can also mean to help people with feeling or emotion.

If you have 24 in your phone number, normal people call you for help. But it also depends on the day of the week you are born how these will exactly affect you.

3+6

3+6 Also shows that you will help others but with action because of the number 3. Go and help people to make them more comfy but you have to be the one who goes and does it for them (because you have to go to 6. 6 doesn't come to you).

7+8

Saying the words, showing support and willing to support but have to be told what to do to help. Plus, when these are together means someone will help another but it will have conditions and they will keep mentioning it in the future.
